Office Note.

Letter No. 3356 dated 31st July 1912 from the President, Municipal Commission, City of Bangalore.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from Municipal Taxation of the building in the compound of St. John's Church, Bangalore.

Any building ordinarily used as a place of public worship or charitable institution is exempted from Municipal Taxation under Appendix A. 41 in the Bangalore Municipal By-laws.
The building now under reference is not strictly a charitable institution, but it is occupied by St. John's Church Institute who apparently collect subscriptions, etc., from the members of the Institute. It seems then difficult to understand how this Society can be held to be run as a charitable institution. The Municipal Taxes will not be much & can be easily paid by the management of the Institute as an ordinary expenditure from the funds of the Society. In such circumstances, there appears to be no need to exempt the building from Taxation under Sec. 46 (2) of the Municipal Law.

Submitted for orders.

2. The Commr. have resolved to exempt the building on the understanding that the Institute is run as a charitable institution. The Resoln. may therefore be confirmed under Sec. 46(2) of the Municipal Act

Resoln.
